MANFRED'S RESCUE BID ... But is it too late?

● Joe Caruso greets Manfred Schaefer

● Marshall Soper: Tuesdays off.

SOCCER'S "Iron Man" Manfred Schaefer was flown secretly into Melbourne last Saturday by Brunswick Juventus in a last ditch effort to save the club from relegation.

He met and talked with the players and then took them for a light training 'getting to know you' session in the afternoon.

Being a realist, he was already aware that a big task awaited him in Melbourne, just how big he couldn't have appreciated until he saw his new charges go down 4-1 to Footscray the next day.

The question is though, can Juventus escape relegation?

The loss to Footscray left the Black and Whites six points behind third-bottom Preston Makedonia, and two clubs are due to be relegated at the end of the season.

To make matters worse, Juve's goal difference is so bad that it virtually needs to gain seven points on Preston in the remaining eleven rounds.

But if Juventus goes down, at least its players will be fit.

They don't call Schaefer Australia's iron man for nothing. Laurie Schwab has more on Manfred Schaefer on Page 6.

● Harry Michaels

MICHAELS GOES NUTS OVER BRAZIL

TV Impresario Harry Michaels whose company covers NSL soccer for SBS is furious with the NSL's acting Executive Director Peter Russell for not allowing Alan Brazil to play against Preston Makedonia last Sunday.

There was a most extraordinary scene at Connor Reserve where Wollongong coach John Fleming held up the start of the game whilst he went on to the pitch to take off Alan Brazil and substitute Randell Easthorpe for him.

Brazil was standing alongside his ex-Ipswich Town teammate Paul Mariner and about to kick off when Fleming appeared and called him away.

Before that Michaels had had a furious altercation on the telephone with Russell who refused permission for Brazil to play because he said the player had not signed a contract.

Michaels was prepared to let Brazil play and to hell with the consequences, but eventually commonsense prevailed.

ALL THE JUNIOR RESULTS AND TABLES — PAGES 12,13

SOCEROO coach Frank Arok had the shock of his life this week when he was informed that the Australian Olympic Federation wanted him to name his Olympic squad by June 15.

When you consider that the Olympics don't start until the end of September, the edict seems unnecessarily bureaucratic.

Arok of course, was hoping that the Gold Cup Tournament in July would give him an opportunity to run the rule over a wide range of candidates, but that is now denied him.

Whilst it is true that other sports are being asked to name their Olympic teams by then, surely an exception could have been made in the case of soccer, with its players engaged in competition for another three months.

ASF Executive Director Brian Emery says he can understand the request from the Olympic Federation: it's to enable the Federation to go ahead and process visa accreditations for the whole team.

Under FIFA rules, of course, a country has until ten days before an International match to name its squad. Emery says that the ASF will probably name a squad of as many as 27 players for the purpose of accreditation, and then reduce it to 20 after the Gold Cup.

THERE were some incredible shenanigans at the Preston Makedonia v Wollongong NSL game that I covered last Sunday.

I've never seen a player stripped and ready to kick off taken from the field and substituted as Alan Brazil was, but then, I've never met anyone like Harry Michaels before, either.

Mr Michaels seems to be under the impression that because he's putting some money into Wollongong Soccer Club, the rules that club officials have to abide by don't apply to him.

What happened in the Brazil case was that the NSL office in Sydney had agreed to accept Brazil's resignation if it was sent by fax before the kick-off. But when the office received the fax, it was found that the contract was invalid, having been written on a piece of hotel stationery, instead of the correct NSL contract form.

So Acting Executive Director Peter Russell rang the ground to inform the Wollongong party that Brazil couldn't play.

Although Harry Michaels told me he would prove Russell wrong the next day, he hasn't and Russell's action has been endorsed by the League.

In fact Michaels has egg on his face now, because Wollongong secretary, John Vlietstra has since apologised to Peter Russell on behalf of the club for Michaels' behaviour.

THE sudden resignation of Brian Emery from the job of ASF Executive Director has everyone speculating on his successor.

Emery will leave on July 29th, when Sir Arthur George also retires. NSW President John Constantine, who seems more and more every day to be adopting the role of successor to Sir Arthur has said that the Executive Directors of the various State Federations would have the inside running.

Victoria's George Wallace has said he is not interested, W.A.'s Ted Gray and S.A.'s Peter Nicolie are too old, and Ian Holmes of NSW whilst young enough, is comparatively inexperienced.

Which leaves the door open for Queensland's Alan Vessey, unless of course the ASF decides to advertise for an outsider. Vessey, a Victorian by the way, is 48 years old and experienced which seems to qualify him admirably.

 PITY poor Bobby Russell South Melbourne's popular, tough as nails captain had to limp off injured after only fifteen minutes last week.

And this Sunday's game against Footscray will be the first he has missed in six years.

He's damaged the cruciate ligament and the diagnosis is up to six weeks in a knee brace.

"But I'll be back," vows Bobby "and it won't take me six weeks, either."

Manny Anezakis did a good job as substitute for Bobby and coach Brian Garvey will probably leave him there until Bobby's return.

 FLAMBUOYANT Olympic striker Marshall Soper crossed swords with his coach Eddie Thomson recently and came off worst.

He approached Eddie and said: "could I be excused training for the next six Tuesday nights so that I can umpire the indoor cricket, boss?" Responded Eddie,

"You, can have Tuesday's off for the rest of the season. I'm putting you on the transfer list at $30,000".

 CHARLIE Perkins, Secretary of the department for Aboriginal Affairs could be on a collision course with the ASF.

His involvement with FIFUSA the indoor soccer code that is barred by the ASF doesn't sit very well with the ASF, but Charlie refuses to quit.

It could be very interesting if he gets sufficient support for Sir Arthur's vacant job, couldn't it. He claims there is no conflict of interest and what is more, is prepared to take legal action to prove it.

 TROUBLE is brewing in Adelaide City too.

The sponsor who brought out and is paying for Danish star Jesper Sorensen is becoming increasingly irate over the fact that coach Zoran Matic seems disinclined to play Sorensen.

Apparently the sponsor is prepared to walk out and take his bikkies with him if Sorensen doesn't get a regular place.

KEEPING THE FAITH WITH HIS BULLEEN BOYS

JIMMY Rooney is clearly not one of those coaches who points the finger elsewhere when things go wrong. There are none of those "if only's".

As belittling a man who has played 53 times for Australia, Rooney has learned to accept responsibility even when he doesn't have to.

As coach of State League club Bulleen, currently struggling gamely to get out of the relegation zone, he could say things like "we need players" or "we are having a lot of bad luck". And there are those who would agree with him.

But Rooney says none of these things. Instead it's "I am perfectly happy with the players I have" and "you can't expect things to go your way all the time".

Even with rumors of impending dismissal hanging over his head, Rooney went about his job with single-minded vigour and there are now distinct signs that a recovery is well underway. Not that Rooney ever doubted it.

Rooney, to put it simply, has faith in his players and this has been put to the test several times this season already.

"I just wish they had as much faith in themselves as I have in them," he said. "If they had I'm convinced that we would be in the top four and not the bottom six."

"But we have had a couple of good results recently (a win over Box Hill and a draw with Northcote City), so perhaps that will give the players a bit of confidence."

"They have the ability, I'm convinced of that. If they hadn't I would be looking for replacements."

"I have knocked back several players who wanted to play for Bulleen and I have resisted the temptation to look abroad, although we still have three vacancies for temporary visa players."

"I really believe we have the talent available at the club and I see no point in rushing into the overseas transfer market just for the sake of it."

"The committee has given me the opportunity to do so, but I much prefer to rely on home-grown youngsters."

Rooney has made three purchases since he took over at Bulleen at the start of the season. He bought Brian Keenan from Box Hill, Robert Krajacic from St Albans and the veteran Zdravko Lujic from Footscray.

All have done what he expected and while he admits the team struggled at first, he is confident that Bulleen will survive. As he says: "There is no danger of us being relegated."

"We have been playing well enough recently to be four points better off than we are. I won't blame bad luck for not being in a more comfortable position because that's too easy."

"We just haven't taken the chances we have created and that's down to us. But the committee is right behind the team and it has certainly given me every support."

While Rooney is not oblivious to the problems still facing Bulleen, he is undoubtedly a positive thinker.

He worked wonders with the youth team at Sunshine George Cross when he was understudy to John Gardiner and he is confident that he can do a similar job for Bulleen.

"It's a matter of hard work and faith. I really believe we have sufficient talent here. It's just a matter of getting it all together and that will come," he said.

"There are signs of improvement every week and that's what I'm looking for."

"This season we are mainly interested in survival. Next season we should reap the benefit of experience and confidence."

It's not difficult to see why Rooney is so widely respected. His enthusiasm has never diminished, nor his determination.

He was one of Australia's best players. He could become one of its best coaches.

FORMER Socceroo champion Manfred Schaefer had a depressed start to his new job as coach of Brunswick with a 4-1 loss to Footscray at Schindler Reserve.

Schaefer joined Brunswick on Saturday, replacing Brian Brown who had been player-coach for only three matches following the sacking of coach Len McKendry.

A FURIOUS melee moments before half time marred an entertaining 1-1 draw between Sydney Olympic and Apia Leichhardt in the National League match at the Sydney Football Stadium.

Apia defender Kurt Reynolds and Olympic striker Terry Patalis clashed in a struggle for the ball near the Apia penalty area and teammates had to physically restrain a raging Patalis as the session extended 7m 35s into extra time.

Patalis has a suspected broken nose and Olympic coach Eddie Thomson claims Reynolds should have been sent off for using his elbows in the challenge.

job since leading Sydney Olympic from 1983-86. He previously coached St George after playing more than 70 games for Australia and lining up in the 1974 World Cup final.

Known during his playing days as the "Iron Man", Schaefer's influence was evident during the first half when Brunswick played well, taking the lead with a goal by Sean Lane in the 22nd minute.

In the 43rd minute Brunswick was reduced to 10 men when midfielder Scott Patterson was sent off for elbowing Tom Karic.

Footscray coach Mirsad Fazlagic reorganised his defence at half-time and striker Warren Spink equalised in the 51st minute with an angled shot that bounced in off the far post.

Schaefer replaced Lane with Andrew Zinni in the 60th minute but although Zinni worried the Footscray defence, Brunswick could not find a gap. Bill Lazopoulos, who had replaced the injured Tom Karic was sent off the field in the 66th minute over a foul on Zinni, having been warned earlier over another clash with the striker.

Footscray took control of the match with a headed goal by Drago Deankovic in the 55th minute.

And Brunswick fell apart when Milan Dimoski scored in the 78th minute following lead up play by Flado Bozinovski and Spink.

The fourth goal, scored by Luciano Fabrizio, a former Brunswick player, completed Footscray's biggest win of the season. Footscray's outstanding player was 35-year-old defender Vasco Mitrevski who joined recently from Sydney club Rockdale Ilinden.

Temper flared in the half and referee John McConnell issued cards to Kosmina, Jason Polak and Phillips from Olympic and then added Rod Brown and Reynolds from Apia before the break.

Brilliant second half keeping prevented addition to the score as Gosling and Pezzano parried shots.

ADELAIDE CITY 2 (Maxwell 61st, Melta 72nd) ST GEORGE 1 (Pottier 78th)

ADELAIDE City has gained revenge for a humiliating earlier defeat with a 2-1 win over St George in a tough clash at Olympic Sports Field here.

After a 6-0 thrashing in the first round in February, City rose to take the match in the second half after a quicker St George had dominated the opening 45 minutes.

City striker Steve Maxwell put the first score on the board in the 61st minute and it was followed 11 times later by a short header from teammate midfielder Sergio Melta.

MAN OF THE MATCH:

 LES CARTER

AN early goal by Les Carter was enough to bring to an end Sydney Croatia's recent unbeaten run in the NSL at Chaplin Reserve.

Carter's sixth-minute goal gave Sunshine George Cross a 1-0 win over high-riding Croatia.

Carter robbed Vedran Rozic of the ball then made ground to hit a low shot past Anthony Franken from the edge of the box.

Manis Lamond, who has scored six goals in the last seven games, came closest to scoring for the Sydney side when he hit a shot from the right which eluded keeper Sean Keogh but hit the foot of the post.

Lamond set up the other chance with a cross but Mark Jones's header slid just wide of the far post but embattled Preston had a problem too. Steve Jackson, moving house, trod on a nail and failed a fitness test an hour before the game.

His replacement, Billy Piculovski played well enough in his place, but then came out of a heading duel bleeding from the forehead, went off and came back wearing a huge bandage.

But the first time he headed a ball, the trouble started again, and he had to be substituted by Zoran Dimovski.

The closest Preston came to scoring in the first half was when a Steven-son flick beat Warwick Young in the 'Gong goal, but came back off the cross-bar. Paul Mariner showed a lot of dash and skill for Wollongong, but without much support.

In the 60th minute, though, things started to happen. First John Stewart evaded his marker and scored from close range.

Two minutes later, referee sent off Jock Morlando for using abusive language, and Piculovski left the field for treatment.

Paul Mariner took advantage of the temporary disorganisation of Preston's defence and slipped a square ball across the box to Pat Brodnik, who scored without any difficulty.

The game was dragging its way to the seemingly inevitable draw in the gathering gloom when Preston was awarded a penalty.

Player-coach Ron Campbell aimed the spot-kick towards the top corner, but Young leaped across, palmed the ball away, referee Upjohn blew his whistle, and that was the end of the game.

Sunshine, which had won only one of its last seven matches, had set out to play a defensive game fielding a five-man back line.

After taking the surprise lead it was pinned in defence for long periods but the back line defended well and restricted Sydney Croatia to just two clear chances.

Manis Lamond, who has scored six goals in the last seven games, came closest to scoring for the Sydney side when he hit a shot from the right which eluded keeper Sean Keogh but hit the foot of the post.

Lamond set up the other chance with a cross but Mark Jones's header slid just wide of the far post with Keogh beaten.

Sunshine, which had Gary Clark fighting a lone battle up front, depended on breakaways for its rare scoring opportunities.

Robert Markovac seemed headed to break clear on his own in the 69th minute but was dragged down by Shane Clinch who received a booking for his offence.

Croatia, which had been unbeaten in its past six games, started the match without striker Robbie Slater.

Coach Rozio made two substitutes in the second half bringing in forwards Craig Foster and Tony Krslovic, but it made no difference in the team's attempts to break the Sunshine packed back line.

MAN OF THE MATCH:

 ZLATKO NASTEVSKI

MARCONI's scoring aces Zlatko Nastevski and Frank Farina went about their task yet again, lifting the NSL leader to a 3-0 win over Brisbane Lions at Marconi Stadium.

Nastevski netted twice and Socceroo Farina once, with Farina missing a first-half penalty.

The spot kick came seven minutes before the break after a Nastevski shot had been handled by curly Lions' defender David Hunter.

Farina drove to goal-keeper Jason Kearton's right but he had picked the direction and blocked the ball.

The Lions went well enough throughout the first half although they often had 11 men behind the ball in a bid to blanket Marconi's attacks.

But there was never the feeling they were organised enough in defence to hold on.

Brisbane's form proved it will continue to struggle in away games.

"There should be only one team relegated from a 14-team league," Lions coach Juan Cuillas said.

"On the day, we had to minimise their scoring, and unfortunately, there aren't any players around Brisbane we can use to strengthen the team."

Nastevski's first goal came in the 22nd minute from a ball that dropped invitingly on to his left foot.

Then in the 52nd minute, it was Nastevski again.

Right-back Paul Carter provided a measured centre towards the far post for Nastevski to toss his header wide and into the net.

It was Farina's turn three minutes later as he broke through the centre to beat Kearton with a soft shot.

"Lions fell away after half-time," Marconi coach Berti Mariani said.

"Our pattern improved due to our stability in defence as much as anything else.

"But there will be some serious penalty kicking practice over the coming weeks."

minute with a scrambled goal from defender Mike Grbevski after Kiwi international Kevin Hagan was sent off in the 68th minute.

Hagan was on the field for only two minutes before being given the red card for allegedly striking City stopper Neville Flounders.

After the match Flounders was treated for a cut above his eye, lost any chance of winning the game.

"You are down a man and that's the end of the game," he said.

Arok said his team now had no chance of making the top five.

"I think we played a better first half but we bought too many dummies today," he said. City coach Zoran Matic said it was always difficult to play against St George.

"It's like two armies clashing head to head," he said.

"Playing with five defenders is very difficult, they never want to commit their last players so you can't score."

St George's Socceroo striker Scott Ollerenshaw continually tested the skills of City keeper Robert Zabica but was unable to convert his chances.

Zabica showed his ability with a spectacular goalmouth save from a 36th-minute shot by Ollerenshaw from close range.

"Be first, be strong"

YOU can expect a marked improvement in the performance of Brunswick Juventus under its new coach, Manfred Schaefer, despite its 1-4 loss to Footscray JUST last Sunday.

Whether that improvement will be sufficient to overcome league leader Marconi at the Olympic Village ground on Sunday remains to be seen. Fabio Incantalupo and Vlatko Belic will be back after suspension but Scott Patterson will be missing, after being sent off against JUST.

The mammoth task facing Schaefer is to make up a sixpoint gap between last place, which Juventus presently occupies, and third-last place, which is clear of the relegation zone. If you take Juventus' poor goal difference into account, the difference actually is seven points.

Juventus certainly will get fitter under Schaefer. I spoke to Peter Ratholos about Schaefer's training not long after Schaefer took over Sydney Olympic in 1983. "We've never trained so hard in our lives — and Schaefer is right up there with the leaders, doing everything we're doing — and he doesn't even breathe hard. The guy's a machine," Katholos said. Schaefer was about 40 at the time!

"Be first, be strong," has always been his motto. The Peter Wilson-Manfred Schaefer defensive partnership was the most important single ingredient of the 1970/4 Australian team which, under coach Rale Rasic, reached the World Cup finals in West Germany. Before that, it was the Schaefer-Alan Marnoch partnership.

The highlight of a career that spanned 72 Soccerroo games over eight years, was playing against West Germany — the country where he was born — and marking the great German striker, Gerd Mueller, in Hamburg during the World Cup. Rugged and indestructible, Schaefer was known as the 'Iron Man' in Australia but during the World Cup, the German press labelled him 'The Milkman' after hearing he had a milk round in Sydney. Schaefer approached the game against West Germany with fanatical zeal, determined to keep Mueller scoreless. Unfortunately, Mueller did manage to score — with a header — but it didn't really matter, as Wolfgang Overath and Bernard Cullmann had scored earlier. West Germany won 3-0.

● "When I say jump, you all jump", says Schaefer to Sean Lane, Charlie Egan and Peter Lewis.

One of Schaefer's finest games was against Israel in the World Cup qualifying match which Australia drew 1-1 in Sydney in 1969. Having lost 0-1 in Tel Aviv, the draw was not enough to put Australia into the finals, but it wasn't for lack of trying. Schaefer dug deep into his reserve of stamina, strength and sheer determination to lead a spirited onslaught on the Israelis during the second half but his team mates failed to match his power.

It was against New Zealand at the Cong Hoa Stadium in Saigon during the Soccerroos' unbeaten Asian tour of 1967 that Schaefer, the St George Budapest centre back, made his debut for Australia.

Frank Micic of Footscray JUST was having trouble in the wet, slippery conditions, so coach Joe Vlasits replaced him with Schaefer at half time and from then on, Schaefer was a No.1 choice. Australia incidentally, beat New Zealand 5-3.

Schaefer came to Australia at the age of 12 and joined the Blacktown juniors, from where he progressed to St George. There he played in the company of some top players like Johnny Warren, Adrian Alston, Harry Williams, Attila Abonyi, Mike Denton, Jim Fraser, Jack Reilly, Doug Utjesenovic, George Harris, Don Sandell and Bobby Hogg.

He dropped out of international soccer in 1971 due to business commitments and it was during a visit by Israel that year that Micic — the man Schaefer had displaced four years earlier — was recalled to the national team. Schaefer returned in a 1-0 victory against Wolverhampton.

Wanderers in Melbourne in 1972 and thoroughly destroyed the Wolves attack, led by Derek Dougan who hardly got a kick.

He hung up his boots after the 1974 World Cup and was back as coach of St George in 1976-77. There was another six-year lull before he popped up again with Sydney Olympic which won the 1985 National Cup under Schaefer was in line for the Sydney Croatia job during Croatia's slump earlier this season but the committee got behind the incumbent, Vedran Rozic, when the team's form improved. He accepted Juventus's offer because he felt that with the talent in the team, it would not take long to edge up the table. "I saw Juventus against APIA in Sydney and had it been a boxing match, Juventus would have won easily on points," Schaefer said. "The club has the talent to do well and I would not have taken the job had I not thought I could help save the club from relegation."

Schaefer now has to:

● Knock it into the players' heads that their style of play has been a thorough failure so far and that they have to change it;

● Overcome a shortage of speed in defence;

● Help develop for the club at least a semblance of public relations;

● Make it clear to players that those who want to live in the past should pack their bags and follow the previous coach, Len McKendry;

● Make better use of Andrew Zinni who was thoroughly wasted as a flank midfielder. Zinni was like a breath of fresh air when he came on as a substitute against JUST.

● ● ●
APOLOGY: Last week we credited Paul Murphy with a goal that was scored by Peter Murphy — a classic case of robbing Peter to pay Paul.

HEIDELBERG, NORTHCOTE STAGGER

● Oakleigh shocks Croydon ● St Albans a threat

If studying State League form over the last couple of weeks has taught us anything, it is that nothing can be taken for granted.

Any cosy notions that were being entertained a mere three weeks ago that Heidelberg and Northcote had the championship to themselves, and that the bottom six was already determined have been shattered.

Of course it has rained for the last two weekends, and there's sure to be more to come, but the reversals of form down to Reilly's cellar can't just be attributed to the weather.

Whilst clubs like Bulleen, Western Suburbs, Oakleigh and Fawkner were being written off by all the wise-acs with only a third of the season gone, they themselves had other ideas.

Bulleen bounced back from a 4-0 defeat at Maribyrnong to demolish Box Hill 5-2, and then just to show it was no fluke, held the mighty Northcote to a 1-1 draw last week at John Cain.

Western Suburbs, after going down 2-0 to St Albans and then 4-0 to Green Gully shocked the life out of Springvale at Ross Reserve with a 4-1 win.

Then Oakleigh got into the act by convincingly disposing of Croydon City last week, winning 3-1 after conceding a goal in the first 30 seconds.

Fawkner dived into the transfer market to buy Eddie Campbell and Scott Fraser and after two heavy defeats: 4-1 to Green Gully and 3-0 to Heidelberg, bounced back to surprise Maribyrnong 1-0 last Sunday.

So the bottom six is far from cut and dried, so much so that if any one of the bottom six clubs put together back to back wins it could find itself knocking on the door of the top four.

Last weekend the only one of the top five clubs to manage a win was St Albans and now it is threatening to take over top spot.

St Albans, Green Gully and Caulfield City look the form horses now.

Saints have won three out of their last four games, Gully has won twice and drawn at Heidelberg in the same period and Caulfield is unbeaten for the last four weeks with three wins and a draw.

State League Preview By BRIAN JAMES

The coming weekend promises to provide some cracking encounters, with Caulfield at home to Northcote City and Oakleigh travelling to Morwell on Saturday whilst Croydon City v St Albans and Green Gully v Maribyrnong are promising encounters.

Northcote City will travel to Caulfield without strong man Martin Woodall, who has a badly damaged ankle.

Woodall, whose all round ability is reflected in the fact that he was lying second in both the Ansett best player award and the goalscorers list when he was injured, will be sorely missed.

He is Northcote's leading goalscorer with six, although he hasn't been playing up front, and the burden of maintaining Northcote's scoring rate now falls on Carl Gilder's shoulders.

Well, they are big enough: Carl has made a big impact since he joined Northcote in round three and his confrontation with Paul Harris should be one of the highlights of Saturday's match.

Caulfield struggled early in the season and had to wait until the fifth round for its first win.

It seemed then that the departure of Angie Koutos, Con Pappas, and Harry Micheil would be too big a loss for Caulfield to overcome.

And as if that wasn't enough, the players had to get used to a new coach, Rocco Ille, Takis Sviggos after seeming a permanent fixture having departed for Oakleigh.

But there's a shrewd committee at Caulfield and to behold up comes another unknown, a tall skinny kid who had a stunning debut in round five, scoring three times against Bulleen.

His name is Angie Goutzioulis, and mark it well, because this lad is the hottest prospect for years and he's going to get a bagful of goals. At the moment he leads the State League goalscorers with seven goals, despite being suspended last week.

Now Caulfield seems to be solving most of its problems. Goalkeeper Robert Madjer is coming back to form after a knee operation threatened to end his career, and Paul Harris and Caesar Fattore have struck up a good understanding between John Bitsonis and Angie Filipou in the back four.

Caulfield's biggest handicap as it strives for the top spot could be its goal difference.

Whilst its defence was getting its act together it gave away too many goals, the game against Maribyrnong being an outstanding example.

If you score three goals at home against a strong outfit like Maribyrnong, you ought to land the points, but that day the Blues generously presented their visitors with three goals.

Caulfield's goal difference is a mere plus five, compared with Heidelberg's whopping plus fourteen and Northcote's plus thirteen.

And its nearest rival, Green Gully, equal on fourteen points is four goals better off.

Croydon's problem is similar to Caulfield's: despite investing in defences it has a very poor goal difference of only plus one.

If the top four struggle as close as I anticipate it to be, overcoming that hurdle could prove its undoing.

Western Suburbs versus Heidelberg could be very entertaining too. A couple of weeks ago, before it started raining, it would have seemed a foregone conclusion, now it's much more even.

Heidelberg will be coached, incidentally, by team manager Jim Kriaris, as Terry Hennessy is suffering from a mysterious bug that seems to have the doctors baffled for the moment.

Best wishes Terry, for a speedy recovery. Green Gully takes on Maribyrnong at Gully Reserve in another game that will have a bearing on the top four.

Maribyrnong coach Jim McIntyre is doing a sterling job just keeping the Polish club afloat, let alone mounting a challenge for the top four, considering the rocky state of the club was in at the end of last season.

Croydon coach Miron Bleiberg conceded after the game that his midfield trio of Flavell, van Egmond and Campbell was thrashed on the day by Halford, Ross and Nicolaidis, so Falcons had better beware.

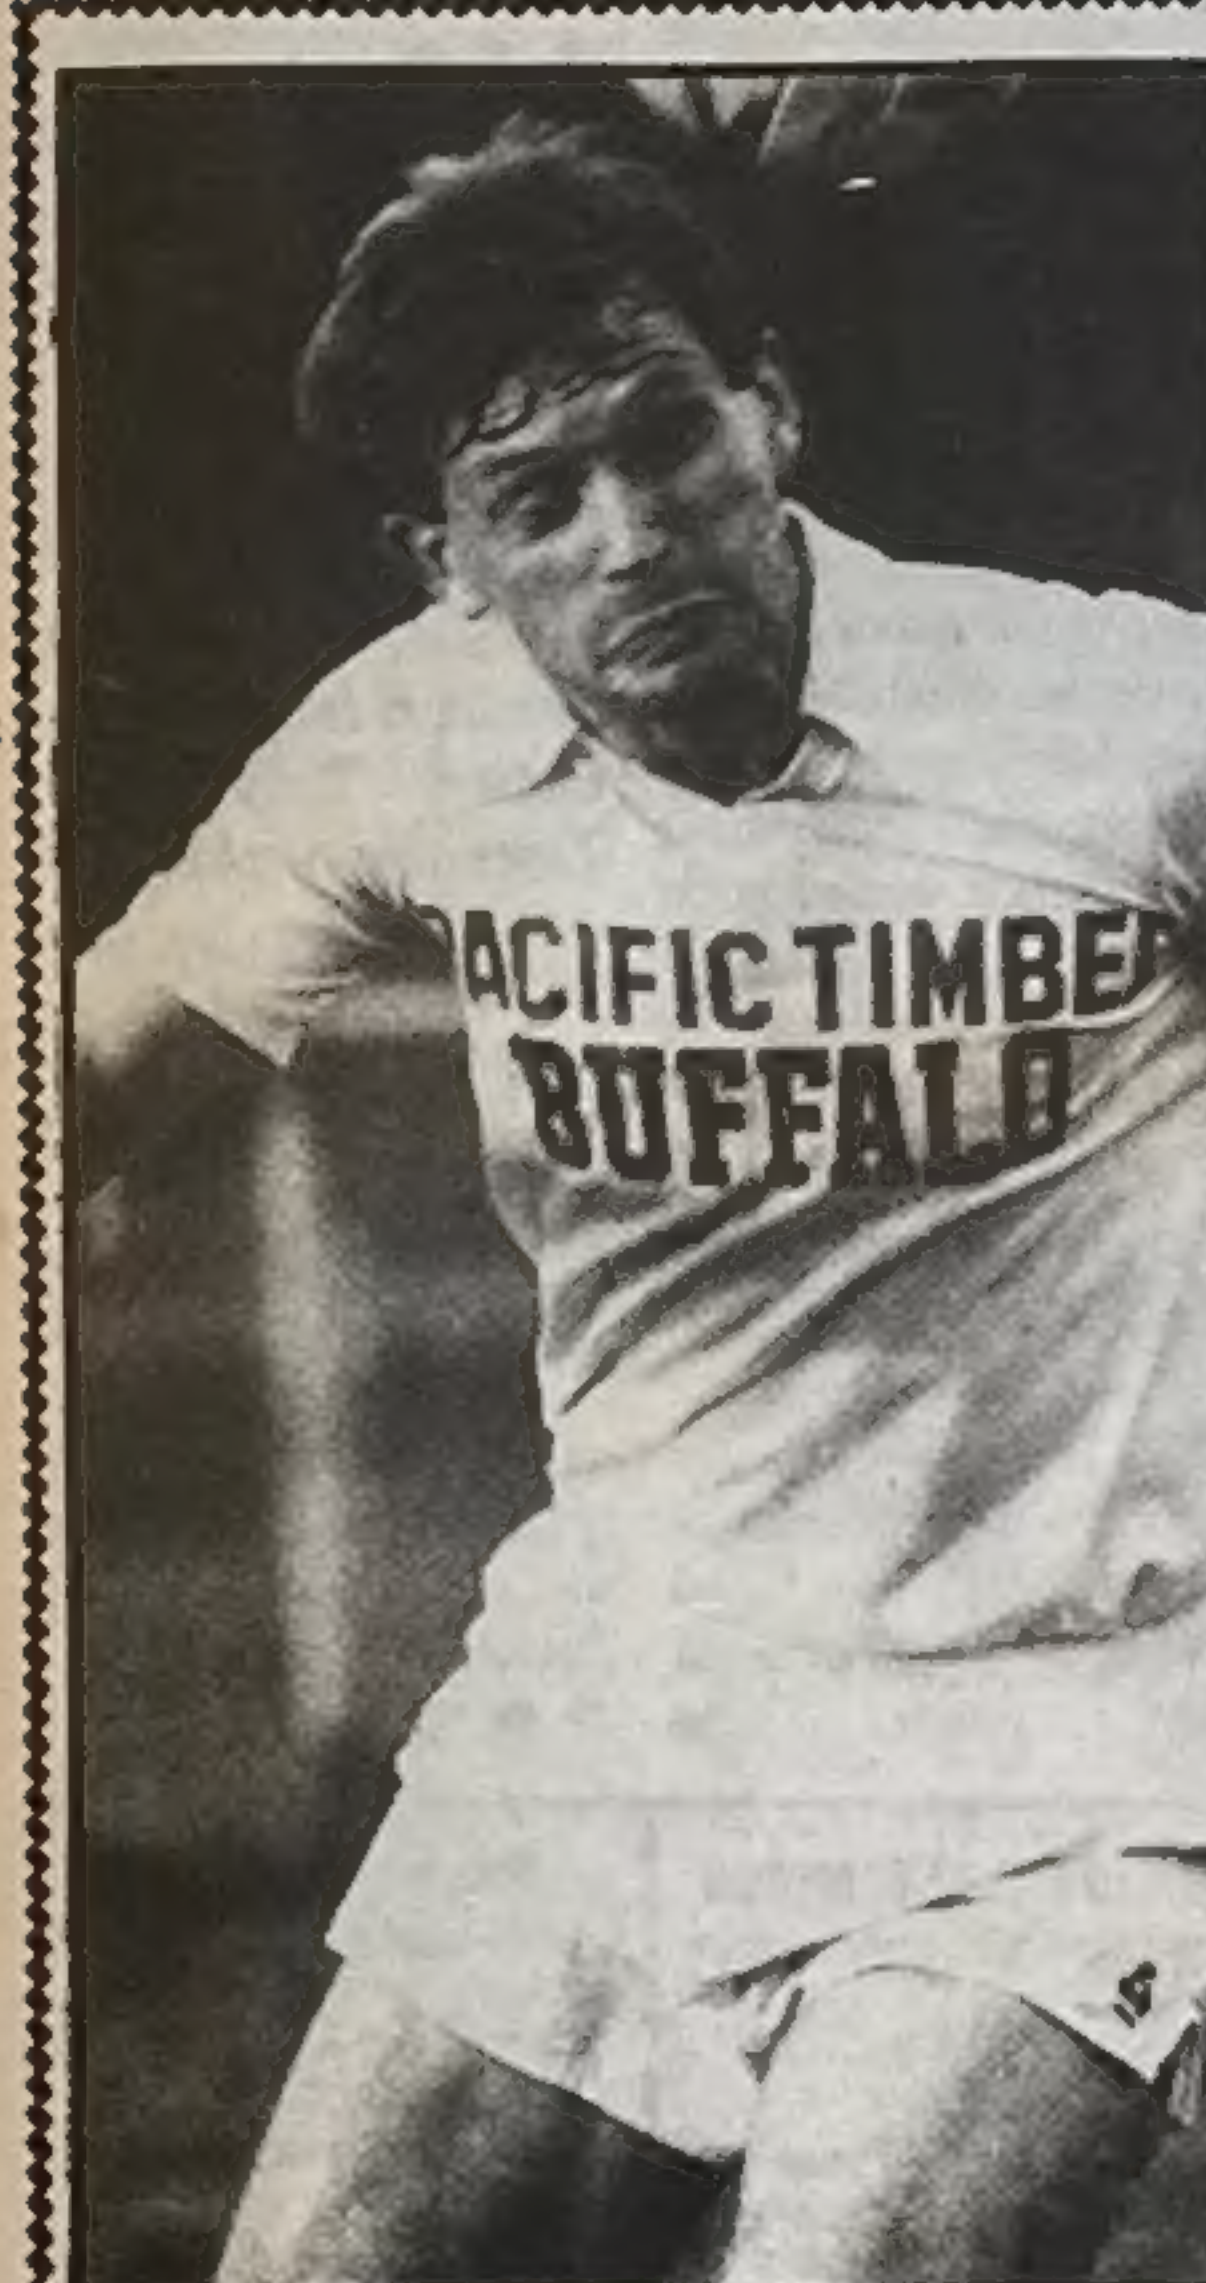

The pick of the Sunday games could be the encounter between Croydon City and St Albans.

The Saints will provide a stern test of Croydon's ability to bounce back after defeat.

Springvale City looked to be on the verge of improving, but last week's loss at home to Western Suburbs was a bad blow for Gus MacLeod and he'll have to work some magic to lift his team for the trip to Thomastown.

The weekend's games, likely winners in capitals: SATURDAY: CAULFIELD CITY v NORTHCOTE CITY at Princes Park, BULLEEN v RINGWOOD CITY at Veneto Club, MORWELL FALCONS v OAKLEIGH at North Crinigan Reserve.

SUNDAY: WESTERN SUBURBS v HEIDELBERG at Raleigh Reserve, GREEN GULLY v MARIBYRNONG at Gully Reserve, FAWKNER v BOX HILL at Smith Reserve, CROYDON CITY v ST ALBANS at Town Park, THOMASTOWN v SPRINGVALE CITY.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE ROUND-UP

Windsor Downs Dynamo

DIVISION 2A has a new leader. Windsor continued its run of recent good form in taking on league leaders, Dandy Dynamo, and downing them 2-1.

The scoreless first half was far from dull, with both sides going all out for break-through.

For Dynamo, Jurcut and dodenciu brought the best out of the Windsor keeper, while Windsor for its part saw Sammy Ioannidis net the ball in the 35th minute, only to have the goal disallowed for off-side.

Just on the first-half whistle, Ioannidis again broke through the Dandy defence, only to see his rocket-like volley rebound to safety from the cross-bar.

The first 20 minutes after the break saw a continuation of the desperate end-to-end play which had marked the first half. At the 66th minute, Katrigioglou laid the ball off to Ioannidis, who slammed home the opening goals. Ten minutes later, he scored his and Windsor's second. Dandy Dynamo would not give up. Calling on every ounce of courage and skill, they mounted attack after attack, and could have scored at the 84th minute when Lavinus forced a desperate fingertip save from the Windsor goalie. Three minutes later, Dandy Dynamo finally broke through when Dodenciu placed the nearest of chips out of reach of the advancing keeper.

Though they continued to press, time ran out for the Dynamos, who saw both the match and the leadership of Division 2A conceded. This was an excellent encounter, full of tension, skill and excitement, and expertly controlled by the man in black.

There was also a change of leadership in Division 2M where Coomoor Spiders, by virtue of a 10-1 hammering of St Bernards Old Collegians, leapfrogged Northcote United on goal difference. The Spiders are becoming more venomous week by week as they build up their teamwork, and may well be hard to head now that they have hit the front.

Northcote United did not help itself, being held to a surprising draw by Montrose, whose recent form perhaps did not reflect its true potential.

Meanwhile, in Division 1 Middle Park's supremacy is under attack. St Albans Dynamo moved to within a point of the leaders when it made no mistake against a struggling Highpoint, whose 1987 co-ordination and confidence both seem to have deserted them.

The Parkers dropped a point again this week, drawing 0-0 at home to Altona Ilinden in a lacklustre encounter. Both sides played well below their best, victims perhaps of F.A. Cup fever.

Another victim of that dreaded disease was East's Bowater, who came out none too steadily against eight-placed Laminex, and was soundly trounced 5-1. In this division, Garden City leapfrogged Keeley Kings, moving into second with an excellent 2-1 win in a tight and high-quality match.

Dallas United retained their leadership with a commanding 8-3 win over Essendon Tramways while, in the remaining matches, Taxation United and Oakleigh City fought out an entertaining 2-2 draw, and Kew Deaf went home rejoicing after picking up their first points for the season when they downed Ferris United by the odd goal in 7. It was pleasant to see the Kew Deaf Boys back amongst the winners, as they have been really struggling through lack of depth so far this year.

Match of the day in Division 3 West was Altona Heights' 1-0 win over Altona North Tarnix. This was a game packed with class, with only a 60th minute goal separating the two sides in a close and incident-free engagement.

But Altona Heights' win was not enough to take them to leadership, as Tottenham continued its determined march to promotion with a clinical 3-1 dissection of the Northern Cross St Helena defence, giving it the leadership on goal difference. Sunbury had its first league win of the season when, against all predictions, it downed Nippondenso 3-2. In other matches in this division, Creswick Town drew 4-4 with Whittlesea, while St Albans Wanderers and Keilor Old Boys put in 90 minutes of effort with no better result than a 0-0 draw.

RAAF College are still flying high at the head of Division 4, but are rapidly being closed down by an improving Flemington-Florida, who made the journey to Point Cook and came away with both points in a 1-0 scoreline. Salesian College, meanwhile, stalled Embassy Taxis with a 3-1 win, while Westall P.I.P.A. derailed Preston Tramways to the tune of five goals without reply.

There may be a new star rising in Division 1. The smart money says look out for Hampton Park, which in its first year in the league are improving week by week, and with this week's hammering of the well-performed Apollo United (6-2), has moved up from eighth spot to fifth, and are only three points adrift of the leaders. Nevertheless, anything can still happen in this division, with only five points separating first and last. Towards the end of the season, it could well be the teams that have built up masses of goal difference who will stave off their challengers. Another club worth watching is Glenroy Doxa, who appear to have hit a flat spot. A return of its form of earlier seasons would see this Club making a determined bid for Championship honours.

We have perhaps been a little unfair to our reserves teams, as they have not had much of a mention so far this year. There are some fascinating tussles shaping up in all three divisions.

While Middle Park have a comfortable cushion at the top of Division 1 Reserves table, it is being closely pressed by St Albans Dynamo, whose strength is improving week by week, and by Highpoint, which went through the whole of last year's championship rounds undefeated. Only a point adrift are Footscray United and Hampton Park United, while a point further back Glenroy Doxa, formerly a major force in this competition, are waiting to pounce.

There are two undefeated teams in Division 2M Reserves, with Springvale Eagles staying a nose in front of Fibremakers on goal difference. Swinburne on eight points, and Coomoor Spiders on six, are also likely to figure in the final run for trophies.

Only North Dandenong Sparrows have kept a perfect record in Division 2A, leading by two points from Flamingo. A point further back, Rowville United threaten, as they have by far the best goal difference in this section.

On the same points as Rowville, but with only a +1 goal difference, Dandy Dynamo are not to be discounted either. Next on the ladder is C.S.U.V., whose performance in the reserves competition far outshines that of their Firsts team.

Rep Squad Training

THIS week's session is at Northcote City on Tuesday night.

On Tuesday the 24th, the Squad meets its old adversaries, Keysborough, at the Coomoor Reserve under match conditions.

Players are reminded they should not wait to be called. Anyone who believes he can contribute to the team should attend.

VICTORIAN LEAGUE Division One C

Nunawading City 1, Dandenong 0.
At Mahoneys Reserve.

NUNAWADING: G. Sullivan, C. Calafiore, J. Samtoy, C. Servinis, J. O'Reilly, K. Taylor (P. Chiaravalle-80).
DANDENONG: C. Kovac, A. Taylor, G. Bannan, T. Carmichael (J. Donnelly-60), G. Porter, K. Swinscoe, J. Symonds, G. McPhee, D. Chisholm, D. White, D. Wilson (A. McCormick-77). A

A SOFT goal that Dandenong keeper Kovac should have saved gave Nunawading its third win in four games, as it continued its climb up the table. Defences were generally on top, yet Greener looked to have given Nunawading the lead when he curled a fierce free kick over the defensive wall but somehow Kovac got a hand to the ball. After half an hour, Neal scored with an angled shot that appeared to bounce over the diving Kovac.

Kandengon piled on the pressure in the second half but the Nunawading defence was well marshalled by Jim O'Reilly, and the home team could have increased their lead but for some less than perfect finishing. Azzopardi, Jerz and Neal all could have added to the score. Nunawading was nearly made to pay for these misses, when with four minutes left Swinscoe broke through but scooped the ball over the bar from close range.

DIVISION TWO
Devon 1, Waverley City 1
DOVETON: Whiteside, Stewart, McGunness, Milne, Pollock, Mayne, Hughes, Jackson, Duyker (Ollerton 65), Cherie, McDonald, Byrne, Ollerton, Hawthorn.

WAVERLEY CITY: M. Perree, Tsapatis, Storey, Paterson, A. Perree, Parkin, Wilson, Droude, Roberts, Rusmir, Ireson, Stojevic, Fletcher, Res. keeper K. Pavlou.

THIS was a battle of experience Doveton against a Waverley side which contained no less than six players 20 and under. After a very dull first half the game came alive in the second half when Billy Whiteside had to make two very good saves from one-on-side situations from Parkin and then Tsapatis.

Reduced to 10 men after McDonald got a second booking, it was Doveton who found new urgency and Ollerton who had come on as a sub gave them the lead in the 70th minute. Waverley got its composure back and came at Doveton. A free kick onto the head of the oncoming Anthony Perree who made no mistake to make the scores level.

A draw was a fair result but if Waverley had taken its chances early in the second half the result could have been quite different.

DIVISION TWO
Eltham 2, Doncaster Rovers 1
ELTHAM: H. Cook, A. Hadzic, W. Hunter, R. Start, M. Cirka, C. Briggs, P. Cirka, K. Rappos, D. Norton, C. Moulas, S. Milenkovic, G. Anagnostou, C. Kidd, E. Bittner.

DONCASTER: H. Graham, J. Pucovski, M. Sowards, N. Skinner, I. Humble, R. Tolmie, R. Nicolidis, N. Fernandes, J. Twine, P. Spicer, G. Malliaros, G. Talia, P. Brennan, K. Kalifatis.

FROM the onset of the game Doncaster put pressure on the Eltham defence with spiritous attacks down the wing by Spicer, but it soon became clear that the Rovers had to adjust their game because of the small pitch. Eltham's long kick out continually caught their forwards offside. The game rapidly deteriorated into a succession of offside traps with both teams failing to come to grips with the small pitch, the only entertainment was provided by Rovers' Spicer and Eltham's Moulas who kept the crowd guessing who would receive a yellow card first. In the 42nd minute the game came to life with a narrow miss by Humble from a free kick by Rovers Tolmie and a 30 metre drive by Briggs that rebounded off the Doncaster post into Graham's arms.

Doncaster came out in the second half with renewed zeal and six minutes into the half Fernandes eluded his markers and got to the byline to cross perfectly to Spicer who headed the ball home for Rovers first goal.

Rovers continued the pressure with repeated attacks and corners conceded by the harassed Eltham defence. With four minutes to go the wheel fell off the Rovers' wagon when Milenkovic running diagonally across the Rovers' penalty area was brought down by the Rovers captain Humble and Eltham equalised with the penalty.

Two minutes later disaster struck for Doncaster when Cirka latched onto an Eltham corner and rocketed the ball 20 metres into the Doncaster net to give Eltham its first win for the season. In the reserve game Rovers defeated Eltham six goals to two with a hat-trick by Mathol.

DIVISION FOUR
Keysborough 0, Boronia 2
At Coomoor Reserve.
Referee: Michael Benovic.

KEYSBOROUGH: S. Macturk, M. Atkinson, G. Castel, S. Crivari, J. Bruce, P. Failla, Z. Milanovic, G. Koutsikos, W. Rae, J. Bijoux, S. Leveque (D. Crowley 60). Coach: W. Rae.

BORONIA: S. Robins, I. Williamson, C. Langdon, Dino Milosevic, K. White, D. Bain, D. Tattersall, G. Groenewald, P. Strahan, G. Radcliffe (inj. 77. J. Forbes), W. Groenewald. Coach: Ian Williamson.

KEYSBOROUGH'S best: G. Koutsikos, S. Leveque, G. Castel. Boronia's best: P. Strahan, I. Williamson, Gary Groenewald. WHEN it reached half-time with the score still 0-0 after playing against the wind and sun, Keysborough's player-coach Billy Rae must have thought his boys were in with a chance for the club's first win of the season.

Keysborough had withstood much pressure and goal attacks including conceding eight corners to only three against.

The home side's shops were dashed when Boronia forced a corner in the first few seconds of the second half and three minutes later Boronia's Philip Strahan headed over 'keeper Stuart MacTurk from a Gary Groenewald 25 metre free kick.

At 65 minutes Keysborough nearly equalised with Boronia's 'keeper Stuart Robins well out of his ground but the shot went wide across the goalmouth for a goal kick.

Boronia set the seal on its victory at 77 minutes when Gary Groenewald put away a penalty but only netting after a rebound from Macturk's save.

By contrast Keysborough reserves were 2-0 up at half time with two goals to G. De Baize. Boronia's player-coach Hamish Young brought on Drago Milosevic and Mark Strahan for the second half and this brought quick results at the 53rd and 56th minutes with David Fairburn netting from passes laid on by Milosevic and Strahan respectively.

PROVISIONAL LEAGUE Division One

Diamond Valley United 1, Clayton 1

DIAMOND VALLEY: Hamilton, Drapper, Love, Dodd, Litchfield, Kerr, Flaherty, Foster, Coyle, Dallas, Kelly, Tucker, McLean.

CLAYTON: Szabo, A. D'Angelo, Patris, Smith, Broxham, J. D'Angelo, Wells, Babin, Buffalo, Riccioni, Calendp, Nartino, Biondo.

TWO missed penalties and the squandering of two further clear chances cost Diamond Valley United a point in a game they could have won. Straight from the kick off United took the game to Clayton giving its defence some anxious moments, especially on the wings after 10 minutes a visiting defender was adjudged to have handled the ball in the box while trying to clear his lines. But Coyle drove the spot kick wide of the post.

Soon after, Flaherty sent a short corner to Coyle who cut inside and from 16 metres scored with a fine shot.

After the goal Clayton came more into the game and United keeper Hamilton had to make some fine saves. The second half was evenly matched but it was the visitors who scored when Wells found himself with plenty of room and the time to beat Hamilton and level the scores. If there was any doubt about the first penalty there was none about the second when Kelly was flattened as he bore down on the goals. Coyle again took the kick but was denied by a great save from Szabo. Clayton seemed content with a point after this.

Division Three South Dandenong 3

Ascot St Marks 2

SOUTH DANDENONG: V. Ajrovski, R. Lumani, H. Fasal, H. Schaffer, M. Jusic, J. Elmazovski, K. Craven, Y. Gonullu, S. Elmazovski, S. Yildirim, H. Sepetci.

(Gonullu-43, J. Elmazovski-54, Sepetci-84).

ASCOT ST MARKS: G. Christiano, J. Iskra, B. Margariti, A. Vorpaso, S. Digregorio, T. Coco, A. Damiano, N. Coco, S. Kowitroudis, D. Gugliandolo, M. Palma.

(Palma-26, S. Digregorio-66 min.) AS expected, this top-of-the-ladder clash between the two remaining unbeaten teams was a close game. Paco and entertaining throughout, a share of the points would be from either side. A lucky rebound put Palma in the clear and he opened the scoring for Ascot St Marks.

A brilliantly-placed angled shot by Gonullu, two minutes from the interval, levelled the scores. Ascot St Marks took the lead with a well-struck penalty by Digregorio. South struck struck penalty by Digregorio. South stuck to their task, scoring the equaliser through Jim Elmazovski, the ball being deflected by a defender.

A touch of good fortune gave the Dandenong team maximum points. An orthodox cross by left-winger Sepetci, and a wind-assisted ball found the net inside Christiano's far post.

AMATEUR LEAGUE Division Two

Upfield 1, Oakleigh 3

OAKLEIGH UNITED: G. Katelis, L. Marchese, P. Vasile, P. Ricci, F. Ricupito, J. Tiganis, S. Prokopiou, V. Solarino, S. Karatzios, F. Menna, S. Narduzzo, J. Pecora, N. D'Angelo, R. Mandarino.

UPFIELD: Sta-sinoulis, Nicolaou, Tsolakis, Tsimiklis, Argeropoulos, Pantazopoulos, Vilella, Fokianos K. Balassopoulos, Stamatopoulos, Fokianos P., Koutsodimitropoulos. AFTER a very even first half in which Oakleigh led 1-0 by a goal scored in the 30th minute, Upfield started to take control of the game winning a penalty early in the second half. But Koutsodimitropoulos of Upfield missed the penalty.

Soon after Oakleigh was facing a harder task when P. Ricci of Oakleigh was sent off and Koutsodimitropoulos quickly equalised. Upfield seemed to fall asleep, allowing Oakleigh to score two quick goals ending the game, Upfield 1 — Oakleigh 3.
